Original Poetry.

THE BAPTISMAL ROBE.

'Tis finished at last, and she holds to the light
The richly embroidered hem,
The sleeves and the bosom, so perfectly wrought
In flower, and leaf, and stem.
The stitches gleam over the foldings of snow
Like pearls on the fibres strung;
They wander in lines, and in clusters and rows
The bands and the plaits among.

Her fingers, with tender and reverent touch,
Have fashioned the robe she holds,
And tears that she fain would have kept in her heart
Fall over its dainty folds.
In thought she revisits a spot where to night
The sods of the churchyard press
A coffin that hides, 'neath its mouldering lid,
Another baptismal dress.

Ah! lone is her life, but its wearisome toil
The cry of her heart forbids—
She blesses the Love that has taken away
The light from those drooping lids.
Temptations and trials lie thick in her path,
And sorrow, and want, and care;
Thank God! they may never o'ershadow the brow
So peacefully resting there.

Look up! weary voyager over the sea
That lies between us and Heaven—
The sky is serene, though your bark on the deep
By tempest be tossed and driven;
The port is not far, but your patience and faith
The Lord of the wave would test:
Look upward! 'tis not where the little head lies
The spirit has found its rest. LINNET.

A BEAR HUNT IN ALASKA.

More than twenty years ago Ben Ringbolt and I shipped on board the North Star, for a three years' whaling voyage. Ben and I had been brought up boys together; and the first time we went to sea it was on the same ship, and we never parted until poor Ben went out on that long voyage that we have all to take, sooner or later.

Well, the North Star sailed away, and in due time we rounded the Horn, entered the Pacific and at last reached our fishing grounds. The season was well along, so we had but little time for work, and almost before we knew it, the long nights and the cold were upon us. We bore away for Alaska, where we were soon snugly housed for the long and dreary winter that was coming over the ice and snow, with the speed of a ship with her sails all set, before a spanking breeze.

Here we lay cooped up for two good months, with only now and then a run on shore to pay a visit to the natives. The sun had scarcely shown his face at all, and only a few moments at a time when he did. Soon came the continuous night of the Arctic Circle, a night as light as day, for the sky was all ablaze with great flaming swords that seemed to wave to and fro as you looked upon them. There were no clouds, and the flames could be seen flashing far over the snow and ice. Nothing I ever saw could compare with it.

One day, or rather night, some of the natives came on board and reported that a huge white bear had been seen near the coast, and was now making off over the ice towards the hills that we could see sparkling in the light some four or five miles away; and every one, from the captain down to the cook, was eager to go in pursuit of the animal which was described as being a monster in size. Of course all could not go, and as an example to those who must be left behind, the captain remained, and the first mate led the party; among which were Ben and I, thanking our stars that we had got a chance to stretch our legs ashore. We were not long in being put on the trail by the natives, and we had not gone a mile from the ship when we saw our game shambling along before us some distance ahead, making its way in no hurry towards the hills or rather cliffs of ice that stretched themselves along the horizon. The snow and ice was so firm that it seemed as though we were traveling on a marble floor, and so hard was it, that the bear hardly left trail enough for us to discern where it had passed.

It was sport for us thus to have free use of our legs, and with loud shouts, which we could not suppress, we hurried on in hopes of getting near enough to the bear to send a shot after it before it could reach the hills, and elude us, But in spite of all our efforts it reached the foot of the cliffs and began to climb the jagged masses, while we were still so far distant that a shot would not have reached it.

Once or twice the bear had turned and looked towards us, as if scenting pursuit, and then had gone on again at the same pace as before. After climbing a jagged cliff, as high as a ship's masthead, where it could obtain a good look-out, the beast stopped and took a deliberate look at us; and though we came hurrying on, showed no haste to proceed. At last the mate determined to risk a shot, and bringing his piece to bear he sent the bullet flying in the direction of the monster, which, rearing on its hind legs and uttering a fierce growl, showed that the ball had struck. A shout of triumph broke from our throats, for we felt sure that the bear was now in our power, and incapable of leading us a much longer chase. But in this we soon found that we were mistaken; for with another growl at us, it went on at an increased pace, and in a few moments was hidden from our sight amid the jagged masses of ice, that, as we neared the foot of the hill, seemed impossible for us to surmount.

Though the way was steep and slippery, we found that we could secure a foothold where the bear had gone, though it had the advantage of us as regarded its claws. Ben was in the advance, I next, and the rest of the party straggling behind; and after awhile we managed to reach the spot where the snow was marked by a crimson streak, giving us a trail that we could not mistake. Encouraged by this sign, we gave another shout and pressed on.

It was hard climbing, and more dangerous even than running up to the masthead with the ship threatening every moment to be tossed on its beam end. There were no ropes to cling to, and a misstep would have sent us down like a rocket. Once I slipped, and had it not been for Ben's hand, held out at the same moment, I must have gone down and been dashed to pieces on the solid ice an hundred feet below.

We got at last to the top of the first range of cliffs which overhung the plain below, and to the spot where the bear had disappeared from our view. It was nowhere to be seen; but before us was a narrow field filled with great masses of ice that had fallen from the high cliffs which overhung it in the rear. The crimson trail led in among these broken fragments, and with another shout, after we had taken breath, we pressed on, Ben still keeping in the advance, and I followed him close, keeping an eye out for danger, for I expected every moment that the monster would spring upon us from behind some of the ice-boulders that were scattered so plentifully around.

A call from the mate caused me to pause until he came up, but Ben, eager to be the first, went on alone, and before we again moved forward he was out of sight. Eager to be with him, I increased my pace, as did also the mate, but hardly had we taken a dozen steps when the report of Ben's pistol startled us, and the echoes rolled among the cliffs, followed by a terrible howl of savage rage, and a human cry for aid that was well-nigh drowned by the roar of the beast that seemed to shake the solid ice upon which we stood.

For a moment that cry fastened me, as it were, to the ice, without the power of motion; but the spell was broken by the mate, as he shouted:

"Forward, men, and rescue your comrade. But be careful."

The men did not need this to cause them to press forward as fast as possible, but it had the effect to awaken me from the sort of trance into which I had fallen when the cry for aid had filled my ears; and, with a bound, I sprang forward. A few steps revealed to me a sight so terrible that for years after it haunted me in my sleep, and even now it appears as vividly as ever. The space before me was nearly clear of the great ice-boulders that were strewed so thickly behind us; and the way to the foot of the cliffs, that we were now close upon, descended at such a sharp angle, that one used to it could have slid upon his feet down to the very base, had it not been for a great chasm that opened near the centre of the field, and which appeared to run along its whole length. We could tell nothing of its depth; but the dark line that revealed it to us showed that from its width, it would be impossible for us to cross it. It was a deep crevice, that had been opened by an earthquake, or by some strange movement of the great glacier. But we beheld on the edge of the chasm nearest us a sight which froze our blood—the huge white monster we had been following sitting erect upon its haunches, with poor Ben lying close to his side, and the snow about them stained with blood that had flowed from both their wounds. For a moment neither the mate nor myself could hardly think or stir, while the monster before us uttered a succession of growls that sounded as deep and threatening as the howlings of the tempest. For a moment the beast would look at the victim, stretched so helpless at its feet, and then glare at us, uttering deep growls continuously.

The spell that was upon us was soon broken and the mate slowly brought his piece to bear upon the monster, which suddenly dropped down upon all fours, and, still growling, seemed to be about to commence a meal upon poor Ben, who now, by a motion of his hand, gave us to understand that he was still alive and sensible of his terrible danger.

"For heaven's sake, take good aim, Mr. Jones," I said, as I saw that the mate was about to fire. "Aim at its head, but not too low, or you may hit Ben."

There was a loud report, which seemed to shatter the icy crags about us; and, when the smoke cleared away, we saw the bear standing apparently unharmed. The bullet had gone wide of its mark.

"Parker, give me your gun," called the mate to the man behind him. As he reached out his hand to take it, the bear suddenly clasped poor Ben in a fearful embrace, and, uprearing upon its hind legs, took a few steps in our direction, then, quickly turning, sprang high into the air directly over the fearful chasm, where, for a moment, both man and brute seemed suspended, and then came down upon the other side at the very edge of the abyss. The bear made a frantic effort to secure a foothold, but to our horror, both man and beast rolled over the brink and disappeared in the depths of the horrible chasm.

A cry of horror broke from our lips as we thus witnessed the terrible fate of our comrade; then we made our way down as best we could, to the edge of the chasm, and gazed into its fearful depths. All was gloom, so dense that even the vivid aurora borealis flashing across the sky could not penetrate it. We called upon Ben by name, though we knew that there was no chance of his being alive; and the echoes answered us, as if in mockery.

They were sad hearts that were carried back to the ship. We left poor Ben in his glacier grave, and when, in the spring, we sailed away, it seemed as though we had left him there alive.

A DREAM REALIZED.

Som etime during last summer a stranger stopped at a farm house, in Parish township, in this county, and asked permission to stay over night, which was readily granted by the hospitable farmer. A couple of hours after retiring for the night, the stranger was taken suddenly and violently ill, and for several days was apparently deranged. On his recovery, he informed his host that during his illness he had dreamed three nights in succession, that he had discovered, in a certain ravine near the house, under a rock, an earthen crock containing a large amount of silver. At this the old gentleman expressed surprise, and spoke of it as being a very mysterious dream. Afterward, however, they were walking together in that section, and the dream was again adverted to by the stranger. An examination was at once proposed by the farmer, to satisfy their curiosity.

The rock was soon found and after brushing the leaves carefully away it was removed, and to their utter astonishment there sat a crock full of silver. They took it out and conveyed it secretly to the house, and on examination it was found to contain $400, which they agreed to divide equally between them. The day after this discovery, as the stranger was about to take his leave, he complained to his benefactor of the inconvenience of carrying so much silver, when an exchange was proposed, the stranger receiving $250 in greenbacks for his share of the coin, silver then being at a premium of about 50 per centum. It was not long after the departure of his guest, however, till mine host made another discovery—his $400 in silver were counterfeit! and he had thus been ingeniously swindled out of $250. The story was kept quiet for several months, but it finally leaked out, and we now give it to our readers precisely as we had it.—Alliance (O.) Monitor.

BELIEVING, BUT NOT UNDERSTANDING.—"I will not believe anything but what I understand," said a self-confident young man in a hotel one day.

"Nor will I," said another.

"Neither will I," chimed in a third.

"Gentlemen," said one well known to me, who was on a journey, and who sat close by, "do I understand you correctly, that you will not believe anything that you don't understand?"

"I will not," said one, and so said each one of the trio.

"Well," said the stranger "in my ride this morning I saw some geese in a field eating grass; do you believe that?"

"Certainly," said the three unbelievers.

"I also saw the pigs eating grass; do you believe that?"

"Of course," said the three.

"And I also saw sheep and cows eating grass; do you believe that?"

"Of course," was again replied.

"Well, but the grass which they had formerly eaten had, by digestion, turned to feathers on the backs of the geese, to bristles on the backs of the swine, to wool on the sheep, and on the cows it had turned to hair; do you believe that, gentlemen?"

"Certainly," they replied.

"Yes, you believe it," he rejoined, "but do you understand it?"

They were confounded and silent, and evidently ashamed, as they well might be.

A CURIOUS LOVE STORY.—A very curious story is told by several of the ancient writers respecting Egirvard, a Secretary to Charlemagne, and a daughter of that Emperor. The Secretary fell in love with the Princess, who at length allowed him to visit her. One winter's night he stayed with her very late, and in the meantime a deep snow had fallen. If he left, his footmarks would be observed, and yet, to stay would expose him to danger. At length the Princess resolved to carry him on her back to a neighboring house, which she did. It happened, however, that from the window of his bedroom the Emperor saw the whole affair.

In the assembly of his lords on the following day, when Egirvard and his daughter were present, he asked what ought to be done to the man who compelled a king's daughter to carry him on her shoulders, through frost and snow, in the middle of a winter's night? They answered he was worthy of death. The lovers were alarmed, but the Emperor, addressing Egirvard, said: "Had'st thou loved my daughter thou should'st have come to me; thou art worthy of death, but I give thee two lives. Take thy fair porter in marriage; fear God, and love one another."

A GEORGIA STORY.

Old Stanwix tells the following Georgia story, and vouches for its truthfulness:

About thirty-three and a third years ago, there dwelt in one of the rural districts of Georgia an old codger by the name of Buttcutt Kaylor, who had formerly enjoyed the honors and emoluments pertaining to the office of Justice of the Peace, the duties of which office he discharged with acknowledged "ability" and dignity; and, so far as his neighbors were capable of judging, he appeared to be a very honest man. He had, however, acquired the bad habit of "trumping up" accounts against the estates of those of his neighbors who were so unfortunate as to "shuffle off their mortal coils" within the bonds of his bailiwick. He had carried the practice to such an extent as to arouse a suspicion in the minds of some of his meddlesome neighbors that there might be "something dead" somewhere in the "vent of his"—financial operations. Bob Crogan, who lived in the neighborhood, and "ran" the postoffice at the cross roads, being something of a wag, and having an idea that the Squire's honesty should be quoted below par, concluded, with the connivance and assistance of a few comrades, to "unearth the sly old fox" and expose his rascalities. Accordingly, Bob pretended to die, was regularly shrouded and laid out on the cooling board in the most approved fashion, and sorrowing friends proceeded to spread the news of his demise, which soon reached the ears of old Butt-Cutt. He lost no time in repairing to the house of mourning, carrying with him a "full and complete assortment" of first-class condolence and sympathy, for gratuitous distribution among the members of the bereaved family, and the many sorrowing friends of the supposed deceased, who were present when he arrived. After he had relieved his heart of its burden of feeling words, and succeeded in a tolerable effort at crying, and was about to leave the scene, he tenderly spoke as follows:

"Ah, poor Bob; I'm sorry he died, he was a good feller, and I allos liked him. When me and him went to the races at Augusta—now nigh onto two years ago—I loaned him a hundred dollars to bet onto a bay mare, and he lost, and has never paid a cent of that money from that day to this. Poor feller, he forgot it I reckon, but it's an honest debt. Of course I can get it out of his estate, and——"

Butt-Cutt didn't finish the sentence, for just at this point Bob, the corpse, slowly raised up in his shroud, and stretching out his arms toward the old rogue, as if to clutch him, yelled:

"You are an infernal old liar, and if—"

The din and roar drowned the rest, and old Butt-Cutt didn't wait to see or hear anything more, but with the hurried exclamation, "godillemity," he shot through the door, hurried to his home, "packed his traps," and not only left the neighborhood, but the State of Georgia forever.

SELF-SACRIFICE.

The following story of genuine heroism is told by Madame de Genlis, and, though not new, deserves to be printed again in letters of gold:

When the plague raged at Marseilles, and all the city was panic-stricken, the physicians assembled at the Hotel de Ville to hold a consultation. After a long deliberation they decided unanimously that the malady had a peculiar and mysterious character, which a post-mortem examination might throw light upon; but the operation was held an impossible one, seeing the operator must inevitably fall a victim in a few hours. A dead pause followed this fearful declaration, when suddenly a surgeon named Guyon, in the prime of life, and of great celebrity in his profession, rose and said, firmly, "Be it so. I will give myself for the safety of my beloved country. By to-morrow morn I will dissect a corpse, and write down what I observe." He went away, calmly made his will, confessed and received the sacrament. He then shut himself up with a man who had died of the plague, taking with him an inkstand, paper, and a little crucifix. Full of enthusiasm, he had never felt more firm or more collected; kneeling before the corpse he wrote, "I gaze without horror, even with joy. I trust, by finding the secret cause of this terrible disease to show the way to some salutary remedy; and so will God bless my sacrifice and make it useful." He began—he finished the operation, and recorded in detail his surgical observations. He then threw the papers into a vase of vinegar, sought the lazaretto, and died in twelve hours.

"Died," did we say? Nay, he lived. What life so real as that which casts itself into future generations to be a lasting benefit to men? What better illustration of the Chief Shepherd's words, "He that loseth his life for my sake shall find it!"

—General Grant's father addressed a large Democratic meeting in Cincinnati, on Friday night. What a rattling there must be just now among the "dry bones" at the League House.

—R. G. Horton, Esq., one of the editors of the New York Day Book, died of congestion of the lungs, on Sunday week.

—A "professor" who dives from a height of 200 feet into water only ten feet deep, is the sensation in London.

Remains of an Extinct Race.

It may not be generally known that the ground on which the city of Nashville now stands was once the site of an ancient and populous town, yet such is supposed to be the fact. Some of the most interesting antiquities of our State are found along the lower course of Stone river, but a few miles from Nashville. A wide area of country there is covered thickly with thousands of graves of a now forgotten people. But a few days ago several gentlemen made some researches in this region, and found their labors richly rewarded by some striking discoveries. At a place known as Schell's Spring they found a mound of considerable height and perhaps 40 feet in diameter, which proved upon examination to be nothing less than a vast mausoleum of the dead. The graves were found to be made of flat rocks, symmetrically joined together, and three tiers deep from the base of the mound to its apex. Bones were found in a remarkable state of preservation, together with pottery and shells. Very large ornaments have been dug out in this locality, made from shells found only in the Gulf of Mexico. A gentleman of acknowledged skill and authority in antiquarian matters, who conducted the researches made a few days ago, estimated that the remains which they unearthed could not have less age than 600 or 700 years. What is remarkable, no warlike implements are found in this locality, from which it is inferred that they were a peaceable race, and were probably exterminated or driven away by the Indians. In one of the graves was found a beautiful little vase, which had been placed in the hand of the inmate of the tomb at the time of the burial. Upon this little bit of earthenware was the model of a diminutive animal. The care which these people took of their dead shows a high degree of humanity. We learn that other investigations in this section are to be made ere long. The field is certainly a rich one for the antiquary.—[Nashville Press and Times.

Judge Sharswood's Record.

Last week we referred to Judge Williams' meagre judicial record, printed by his friends in a small pamphlet. The record of that great jurist, Hon. George Sharswood, would fill a library.

I. For twenty years he has lectured as a Professor in the Law Department of Pennsylvania to a succession of classes of law students, with an ability not inferior to the celebrated Chancellor Kent. Almost the whole Junior Bar of Philadelphia are indebted for a part of their legal education to his admirable system of instruction, and look upon him with a feeling almost of reverence.

II. Since Judge Sharswood has been upon the Bench he has decided, as the records will show, above four thousand cases. Of these, one hundred and fifty have gone to the Supreme Court, and one hundred and twenty-five of them have been affirmed. The Judge who has had but twenty-five of his decisions reversed out of four thousand, must be as near infallible as any mortal man can ever hope to be. No Judge who ever sat in any Court in England or America, has exhibited a better record than this.

III. Judge Sharswood's varied productions as an author, are alone sufficient to give him an enduring fame. His edition of Blackstone is the best one ever given to the profession. His edition of Byles on Bills, Starkie on Evidence, Roscoe's Criminal Evidence, Russell on Crimes, and Smith on Contracts, with his professional Ethics and Commercial Law, have made his name familiar to all lawyers, who keep pace with the advancing progress of the law.—Sunday Mercury.

THE NEWFOUNDLAND DOG.—A gentleman connected with the Newfoundland fishery was once possessed of a dog of singular fidelity and sagacity. On one occasion a boat and crew in his employ were in circumstances of considerable peril, just outside of a line of breakers, which, owing to some change in the wind or weather, had, since the departure of the boat, rendered the return-passage through them extremely hazardous. The spectators on shore were quite unable to render any assistance to their friends afloat. Much time had been spent, and the danger seemed to be increased rather that dimished. Our friend, the dog, looked on for a length of time, evidently aware of there being great cause for anxiety in those around. Presently, however, he took to the water, and made his way to the boat. The crew supposed he wished to join them, and attempted to induce him to come on board; but no! he would not go within their reach, but continued swimming about a short distance from them. After a while, and several comments on the peculiar conduct of the dog, one of the hands suddenly divined his apparent meaning. "Give him the end of a rope," he said, "that is what he wants." The rope was thrown—the dog seized the end in an instant, turned round and made straight for the shore, where a few minutes afterwards the boat and crew, thanks to the intelligence of their four-footed friend, were placed safe and undamaged. Was there no reasoning here? no acting with a view to an end or for a given motive? Or was it nothing but ordinary instinct?

Curses are ladders leading to Heaven.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD,
Of Philadelphia.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

FOR ASSEMBLY:
HON. JOHN P. LINTON, Johnstown.
FOR SHERIFF:
JOHN A. BLAIR, Ebensburg.
FOR TREASURER:
JOHN COX, Conemaugh.
FOR COMMISSIONER:
JOHN A. KENNEDY, Carrolltown.
FOR JURY COMMISSIONER:
JOHN BUCK, Carrolltown.
FOR POOR HOUSE DIRECTOR:
JOHN D. THOMAS, Ebensburg.
FOR AUDITORS:
EDW. D. EVANS, Croyle, 3 years.
H. R. SHAFFER, Conemaugh, 1 year.
FOR CORONER:
J. A. HARROLD, Johnstown.

AUDITOR.—Henry R. Shaffer, of Conemaugh township, has been placed upon the Democratic ticket for Auditor for one year, in lieu of John F. Allen, Esq., declined. Mr. Shaffer is an excellent citizen, a competent man, and a sound democrat.

SUPREME JUDGE.

If you are in favor of compelling a man who makes a bargain to pay in gold or silver to live up to his contract, vote for George Sharswood.

If you are in favor of a Judge deciding according to popular opinion, and disregarding the law, vote for Henry W. Williams!

LIKE THEM.

The Radicals in Philadelphia refused to nominate a single soldier upon their ticket, after all their professions of love for the soldier.

In Cambria county the Rads. can only elect a single candidate—the Jury Commissioner. For this office they nominated a civilian, while for those offices which there is no prospect of carrying, they nominated soldiers.

FUNNY.

Last fall the Alleghanian asserted that no man can be deprived of a vote because he is what is called a deserter. This year it blames the Sheriff for not publishing what the Supreme Court has decided to be an unconstitutional law disfranchising deserters.

It is enough to say to election boards that the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania has decided Judge Strong, a Republican, delivering the opinion that no white man who has not been tried and found guilty of desertion, by a legal Court, can be prevented from voting.

ELECTION DAY.

Before another number of the Freeman reaches its readers the great battle will be fought, and, if Democrats do their whole duty, a victory won. We hope our friends will bear with us in a few words of earnest entreaty.

Cambria county has always been as true to her principles as her own everlasting hills to the bases on which they rest. In all the fires of adversity by which her gallant sons have been tried, they have never faltered. While others have been recreant they have been true, and whatever tale the ballot-box of other counties has told, the morning after the election has always given us figures of which we never had cause to be ashamed.

And now, with triumph within our reach—with victory ready to perch upon our banner—will any Democrat falter in the performance of his whole duty? Will any true Democrat think of any other object than the triumphant election of the whole ticket? Will any one deface the ticket by erasing a single name from his ballot?

Let every Democrat remember that we all, as Democrats, have been common sufferers from the tyranny of Radicalism, and that now, when a brighter day is dawning upon us, is the last time we should think of giving "aid and comfort" to the enemy.

Let us, then, make a manly struggle, worthy of ourselves, for the whole Democratic ticket. We require no words of abuse for our dissenting friends. They have a right to their opinions, and many of them entertain them honestly. Many others of them, however, are willing to join our ranks, and swell the tide of triumph which is to cover our victorious arms on Tuesday next.

Let us, then, while we press on for the success of the State ticket, not forget our duty to the county ticket. Let us not, while we toast Judge Sharswood elected, have our joy dampened by a single defeat on our county ticket; but let our joyous exultations be for an increased majority for the county ticket, while at the same time the gallant old Commonwealth is redeemed.

Know-Nothings in the Field.

A few years ago the Know-Nothings organized themselves into a band, sustained by impious oaths, for the purpose of excluding citizens of foreign birth or of a particular religious belief, from the rights of citizenship under the Constitution and laws of the country. This party, though successful for a while, soon sank into merited oblivion, and, you can find no man now willing to acknowledge he ever was a member of it.

A new secret order has sprung up among us, and seeks to control the ballot-box as the Know-Nothings did. It has assumed the name of the "Grand Army of the Republic," and has sworn in a large number of members, especially in the Southern portion of Cambria county. It has already had sufficient strength to dictate the radical nominations and control the destinies of that party in Cambria county.

It is of course secret, and we can't tell whether it is organized precisely upon the same principles as the Know-Nothings. Its avowed object, we are informed, is to confine all political nominations to those who have been officers during the late rebellion. We presume this is correct, for they have placed in nomination a number of officers, from Colonel down to Sergeant, but not a single private, though many of these have qualifications superior to those who, by accident, became officers.

But we are opposed to this secret society upon other grounds. The war is over, and we all rejoice that it is ended. The gallant soldier who served his country on the field of battle, having performed his whole duty, returns to his home and sinks the soldier in the citizen. He knows full well that the people, who are the best judges, will appreciate his services at the proper time. The Democrats, for instance, have at the head of their ticket, for the two best offices in their gift, a gallant soldier of the recent war in the person of Col. Linton, and a brave soldier of the Mexican war in the person of John A. Blair. All distinction between the soldier and the citizen should be lost.

But, further, the people are not willing that their fellow citizens, too old for war, shall be deprived of the right of holding office when they are otherwise qualified, nor are they willing that those whose misfortunes have rendered them incapable of taking the field shall be excluded from the offices of the people. "Fair play is a jewel," and no brave soldier nor good citizen will ask to appropriate all the offices of honor and profit to a particular class. The Democrats have been just to the soldiers, and at the same time recognized the most deserving citizens, by placing those on their ticket who are not only incapacitated for service in the field, but unable to labor by reason of their infirmities.

Major Ryckman, the Radical candidate for Sheriff, Sergeant Ogden, the Poor House candidate, and perhaps others on the Radical ticket, are members of this secret political organization. If we misrepresent this society, or its members, our columns are open to correction. But we do trust the people of Cambria county will give a wide berth to this oath-bound society, boasting the lofty name of the "Grand Army of the Republic." The Republic, thank God, has no need of a "Grand Army," now, and least of all a "Grand Army" of Office Holders,

REMEMBER!

Remember, Democrats, that a full turn out in Pennsylvania will elect Judge Sharswood to the Supreme Bench, and give us a Judge that will decide according to the Constitution and the laws, and not seek for the opinion of the politicians before he decides.

Remember that the success of the Democratic ticket secures a restoration of the Union to its original integrity, when every department of government will move on in its appropriate sphere, as was the case before radicalism unsettled the country.

Remember that with the success of the Democratic party, we shall have a reduction of the National and State debt, a decrease of taxation, and a return to the good old times of honesty and economy.

Remember that the Alleghanian and the Tribune, and other Radical organs, have admitted the last Radical Legislature was the most corrupt body of men that ever assembled in Pennsylvania.

Remember that Thaddeus Stevens leads the radical party, and that he admits that they have been acting, for several years, entirely "outside of the Constitution."

Remember that if the radicals are successful in the coming elections, Pennsylvania will be deprived of the right of making her own election laws, and the Rump Congress will impose Negro Suffrage upon Pennsylvania.

Remember that a full turn out in Cambria county elects the whole Democratic ticket by a large majority.

Remember that the election of a single radical will weaken the future career of the Democratic party, and will be used as an argument in favor of Negro Suffrage.

Remember that no Democrat ever scratches a name on the Democratic ticket without feeling regret and sorrow for it when it is too late to remedy it. Think of all this, fellow Democrats. Go to the polls with a will—take your neighbor with you—vote the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket, and all will be well.

JUDGE SHARSWOOD.

The fight for Sharswood goes on bravely. New friends are every day coming forward in his support. His learning, capacity and fitness for the office are constantly increasing the number of those who will cast their votes for him on the day of the election. His defeat is impossible, and intelligent Republicans have secretly given up the contest as hopeless. Among the signs of the times may be mentioned the fact that the celebrated orator and lawyer, David Paul Brown, has written a most able pamphlet, addressed to all parties in Pennsylvania, advocating the election of Judge Sharswood. Mr. Brown says he is a Republican, and always has been one. He admits that Hon. Henry W. Williams is a graduate of Yale College, and a native of Connecticut; but adds, it is a sufficient answer on that score, that Judge Sharswood is a native of Philadelphia, and graduated with high honor at the University of Pennsylvania. Of Judge Williams he says:

"We do not deny that he was elected Judge of Allegheny county, in the year 1861, without organized opposition. But what does all this amount to? To no more than can be said of a dozen Judges of the various Courts of the State of Pennsylvania. How little is all this to the practical proof of the unquestioned and undoubted competency of Judge Sharswood? No man, I suppose, will for a moment pretend that there could be any comparison between the rival candidates; not that we disparage Mr. Williams, but no man, with all his opportunities and qualifications, could reasonably be expected to possess those claims to the office which are fully accorded to the accumulated learning and approval of more than twenty years.

"The first question then should be, who is the most competent man? Now, is there a person in this community, if left to his unbiased reason, who could hesitate in deciding that question? He has all the facts and the daily proofs before him. In every essential of a Judge, the President of the District Court of Philadelphia has no superior; in calmness, mildness, affability, moderation, inflexibility, and in undoubted learning, he stands pre-eminent in this political controversy."

This is from a Radical Republican, and a veteran lawyer, who has practiced at the Bar for above fifty-one years. This pamphlet is now being distributed through the State, and will unquestionably add many thousands to Judge Sharswood's majority.—Sunday Mercury.

THE Bedford Gazette thus illustrates the working of the Radical law forcing negroes into the cars with white men:

A friend of ours relates that as he was traveling from Philadelphia to Huntingdon, a few nights ago, he took a berth in a sleeping car, and when about retiring, his attention was attracted by loud talking and scuffling on the platform of the car. Proceeding to the scene of the disturbance, he discovered a huge male negro in controversy with one of the railroad officials about obtaining a berth in the sleeping car. The ticket agent had refused to sell the darkey a ticket, and the colored gentleman was trying to force his way into the car without the requisite piece of stamped pasteboard. A policeman came up, however, and settled the business, by telling the ticket agent under the law, if he refused to sell the negro a berth ticket, on account of color, he would be amendable to a fine of FIVE HUNDRED DOLLARS, and subject to pay the like sum to the negro upon an action for debt! This had the desired effect, and the African was handed the coveted ticket. It so happened, however, that but one berth was vacant, and that was half of a double berth partly occupied by a white man. The negro divested himself of hat, boots, coat and vest, and proceeded to appropriate his half of the double berth. The white man, who had been dozing, turned around, looked at the new-comer, rubbed his eyes, looked again, and then came such a kicking, tumbling, sprawling, and mixture of white and black generally, as would have done any amalgamationist's heart good. About this time the conductor appeared upon the scene, and the result was that the negro, with ticket in hand, tumbled into bed, whilst the white man, growling anathemas at the party he himself had helped to place in power, doggedly put on his clothes and went forward to sit with wrenched back and cramped legs, in the passenger car, ruminating over the beauties of Radical legislation.

When this negro bill was under consideration, Mr. Boyle, Democrat, of Fayette county, offered the following amendment as a new section:

SECTION 3. Provided, That nothing herein contained shall be held to compel the admission of negroes into cars set apart for ladies, or into berths for sleeping cars.

Thirty-six Democrats voted for this section, and fifty-one Radicals against it. Thus the section was defeated, and negroes can now force themselves into cars set apart for ladies, or into sleeping cars. Will white men support a party which thus insults their wives and children?—Age.

THE PROGRESSIVE PARTY.—The Radical Republicans claim to be the party of progress. The party certainly merits the title. It began by insisting that slavery should not be admitted into the unorganized territories of the United States. Having forced a civil war on that issue, it then abolished slavery in the Southern States. Its next step was to create a Freedman's Bureau, by means of which, at an expense of sixty odd millions of dollars a year, negroes are supported and educated at the expense of white men, who are obliged to take care of themselves and their children without any such aid of National Government. And now, the same Republican party, which is ruining the prosperity of thirty odd millions of white people for the benefit of four millions of blacks, cries aloud for negro suffrage in all the States of the Union and the equality of negroes in the public schools, the jury box, the State Legislatures and Congress. This is progress with a vengeance. But is it progress in the right direction?—[Sunday Mercury.

POLITICAL AND NEWS ITEMS.

—A man by the name of Merritt T. Money killed forty-one rattlesnakes in one day last week, near Keosauqua, Iowa.

—Forney's stationery bill shows that the increase of salary necessitated the providing of each Senator with eight pocket-books.

—A number of fossil sponges have been discovered near Frankfort, Ky. A number more might be found in the departments at Washington.

—The largest bit of timber ever taken out of the Canadian forests came down the other day. It measures 55 feet in length, and is 29 by 36 inches square.

—A Norfolk paper does not see why so much applause should be bestowed on Sheridan, the hero of only Five Forks, whereas Butler is notoriously the hero of Five Thousand Spoons.

—A man in Afton, Iowa, has escaped from punishment for adultery because the highly educated prosecuting attorney had charged him with "idolatry," which is not known as a crime in Iowa.

—Two Minnesotians were kept all night flat on their backs and motionless, feigning death, by a ferocious animal, which they supposed to be a bear, but which the morning light showed as a large Newfoundland dog.

—Recent investigations have brought to light immense beds of iron ore, and fields of coal in Indiana equal to any in the country. Men of wealth and energy are now engaged in bringing into practical use these heretofore hidden stores.

—The German who is asked to vote the Radical ticket, or any part of it, will not forget that the Tribune, a Radical organ in New York, spoke of his countrymen as "the school-hating, rum-loving breed of Dutch."

—Michael O'Laughlin, one of the number charged with the assassination of Lincoln, and who was sentenced to imprisonment for life at the Dry Tortugas, died there of yellow fever a few days ago. His mother and sisters reside in Baltimore.

—It is a fact that answers a thousand slanders, that George Sharswood was twice unanimously elected President Judge of the District Court by the people of Philadelphia. Here is a conclusive answer to the cry of traitor, and secessionist, which reckless, corrupt partisans howl out against him.

—The entire German vote went against the Black Republicans in California and Maine, and the same result is expected in Massachusetts. The Germans did not leave a monarchial government behind them to come here and endorse a still more tyrannical and expensive one, and a negro government at that.

—Barnum has imported a living gorilla from Africa, at a cost of $8,000. The animal is five feet high, with a shaggy coat and great muscular strength. After a little preliminary training he will doubtless be sent south to become a candidate for Congress from one of the strong Radical colored districts.

—One of the South Carolina registrars says that when the negroes come to "receive the election franchise" they generally bring along bags or baskets to put it in. Several, after registration, being asked what they had done, said that "de gemblin wid de big whisker make me sware to deport (support) de laws of United Souf Carlina."

—Governor Geary, in his recent speech at National Hall, Philadelphia, said: "Judge Sharswood was a gentleman against whose private character not a word can be said—one to whom I will give the credit of being a highly honorable, learned, and Christian gentleman." But one opinion exists in reference to the Democratic candidate!

—Mrs. Mary Arnold died in Brooklyn on Friday, aged one hundred and ten years. She used to visit General Washington, when he lived in Pearl street square, and during the war of 1812 assisted a noble band of women in throwing up earthworks at Fort Greene. She has five children living, of whom the oldest is seventy years of age, and her descendants reach to the fifth generation.

—At Marion, Iowa, a few days ago, one Johnson, a "prestidigitateur," was fatally injured during one of his feats, which was to allow any person to shoot at him with a pistol loaded with shot or ball. It appears that the tube on the end of the ramrod, which draws the charge after being rammed down, remained in the pistol, thereby leaving it full loaded. The Professor was shot in the head and cannot survive.

—Martin B. Corman, the most extensive counterfeiter in the world, has at last been traced to Philadelphia and arrested. All of his presses, plates, and a large amount of good and "queer" money, has been seized. Corman commenced his career of crime in Cincinnati five years ago as a counterfeiter of fifty cent notes, and he has driven a thriving business ever since. It is said he has circulated a quarter of a million dollars in counterfeit money.

—Henry R. Selden, one of the ablest judges of the Court of Appeals, in this State of New York, the highest judicial tribunal in the State, decided that the act of Congress, making greenbacks a legal tender, was unconstitutional. Selden was nominated and re-elected to the same position, by the Republicans in 1863. For a decision of the same kind made by Judge Sharswood, the Radicals of the State, unable to appreciate ability and honesty such as he possesses, denounce Sharswood as a traitor. If so, what is Selden?

—On Tuesday last, says the Patriot and Union, John W. Geary pardoned nine Radicals of Schuylkill county before trial. The number of lawbreakers thus released by this Pocket Pardon governor has already amounted to scores, and has sunk him beneath the respect of every honorable, law-abiding man in the State who is cognizant of the facts. His own party members declare that his acts in this regard admit of no apology or extenuation. The people are justly punished for electing such an arrant humbug to the gubernatorial office. We confidently predict that he will never hold another office within the gift of the people.

—The Radicals of 1867 forced the negroes into the cars. The Radicals of 1868 will force them into the public schools. The Radicals of 1866 fixed the rate of taxation at four dollars and added one and a half millions to the city debt. The Radicals of 1867 have made the tax equivalent to four dollars and twenty cents, and will increase the corporate liabilities two millions of dollars. Will white men and property-holders longer support such a party?

—A wealthy widow named Mary McCarthy drew $1,000 from bank in Chicago, on Wednesday, for the purpose of buying a house, and was proceeding home, about 3 o'clock, when she was seized by a couple of men just as she was getting off the street cars, opposite her residence, and held by one while the other robbed her of the money and ran. The passengers at once gave pursuit, and captured the man who held the lady, but the thief with the money escaped.

—In the town of Kendall, N. Y., there are four churches in a state of tolerable preservation, but the religion within them has gone wholly to decay. Only one of the four has any preaching in it now, and that only half a day each Sunday. Abolitionism bowled them all to death. Religion got rabid with the negro-fobia, as the preachers did, and is now as "dead as mackerel." But the preachers unfortunately live, to rave, and tell falsehoods, about all who are not as fierce after negroes and negresses as themselves.

—A couple of maiden ladies residing in one of the Western counties of New York, who used to live comfortably off of rented property, this year received for their rents just two dollars less than their taxes. Another, a widow lady, in the same town, whose income used to be sufficient for her support, received only nine dollars more than her taxes. One of the old maids referred to, declared that "if the Republican party is in power much longer, I shall have to get married or go to the poor-house."

—On the 9th of July, 1865, General Sheridan gave his opinion of negro suffrage in an address to the returned soldiers at Chicago. He said: "I want those who have been in the South to bear testimony to the condition of these freed negroes. My own opinion is that they are not fitted for the exercise of the franchise. I want them to get a fair price for their labor, but I do not think they are fitted to take part in the legislation of the country." These are the persons the Radicals are in favor of making the equals of white men at the polls, by Federal power.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.—This medicine, invented by Dr. J. H. Schenck of Philadelphia, is intended to dissolve the food and make it into chyme, the first process of digestion. By cleansing the stomach with Schenck's Mandrake Pills, the Tonic soon restores the appetite, and food that could not be eaten before using it will be easily digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored, hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the Seaweed Tonic and three or four boxes of the Mandrake Pills will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his principal office in Philadelphia every week. See daily papers in each place, or his pamphet on consumption, for his days of visitation.

Please observe, when purchasing, that the two likenesses of the doctor, one when in the last stage of consumption, and the other as he now is, in perfect health, are on the Government stamp.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers; price $1,50 per bottle, or $7,50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North Sixth Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

USE THE BEST.—Blades' Euphonial Lubricators are a medical preparation in the form of a Lozenge, and are universally considered the most pleasant, convenient and effectual remedy in use for Hoarseness, Coughs, Colds, Croups, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Diptheria, and all Pulmonary Complaints. They are WARRANTED to give quicker and more lasting benefit in the above affections than any other remedy. Also to contain no deleterious ingredient, and not to offend the weakest and most sensitive Stomach.

Blades' Constitution Pills are so called because of their peculiar effect upon the Liver, Stomach, Blood and Nervous System. For inactivity of the Liver, for the Stomach in derangement, or Dyspepsia, they will delight the patient with their mild and beneficial effect, especially if after long continued indigestion and costiveness, they are left with periodical returns of the Sick Headache. In case of a severe cold, producing Chills and Fever, you can break it very soon by using the Pills as per directions with each box. JOHN H. BLADES & CO.,

The barns of Mr. Gibson Lightcap, near New Alexandria, and Mr. Josiah Masters, of Franklin township, Westmoreland county, with their entire contents, were destroyed by fire week before last.

The barn of David Gochnour, in Marion township, Bedford county, was struck by lightning, on the 20th ult., and with its contents entirely destroyed. Loss between two and three thousand dollars.

Strenuous efforts are being made to secure the pardon of William Johnston, of Hollidaysburg, and many of the papers and most of the people acquainted with him and his circumstances, favor the interposition of executive clemency.

Owing to the resignation of County Superintendent Condon the examination of teachers for the schools here did not take place on Tuesday of last week, and consequently the schools did not open on Monday of the present week, as announced.

Two Ebensburg boys—Ernest D. Rhey and Charles W. Daugherty—have bought out a hat, cap and fur establishment and gone into business in Leavenworth, Kansas. We hope it will prove a cap-ital investment in that fur off country.

The pickpockets reaped a rich harvest at the State Fair in Pittsburgh last week. We have learned of three Cambrians who were victimized in this way, one being relieved of over seventy dollars, another of some forty dollars, and the third came out minus about seventeen.

We were promised a full account of the Carrolltown pic-nic, but it has failed to reach us. The affair itself was one of the most elaborately prepared and best conducted ever convened in the county. The festivities were kept up two or three days, and the amount realized is said to have been $900.

A black fiend named John Brown attempted to outrage Miss Nora Filler, a young white lady residing in Bedford, on the evening of the 20th ult., but the approach of some persons fortunately alarmed him before he accomplished his hellish purpose. The young lady, however, was badly bruised in the scuffle. The villain made his escape and a reward of one hundred dollars is offered for his arrest.

Three Bohemians, evidently a father and two sons, were struck by the engine attached to the Wills' Accommodation train, near Homewood station, on the Pennsylvania R. R., on Friday morning last, and the two young men were killed instantly, and the elder one died of his injuries the same night. The fog was so dense that the presence of the unfortunate men was not discovered until after the accident. Their names were not known, as neither of them could speak English or German, and all that could be learned of them was that they and several other of their countrymen had stopped at East Liberty and obtained employment, some three weeks previously, while on their way to the West.

DEATH OF COL. JOHN D. O'CONNELL.—Our citizens have been exceedingly pained to hear of the death of this distinguished Cambrian and gallant officer. It occurred at New Orleans some time during last week—he and his most estimable lady falling victims to the yellow fever, and both dying, as we understand, on the same day.

Col. O'Connell had highly distinguished himself in the service of his country. Reared on a farm in the vicinity of Ebensburg, he became a candidate for West Point, where he graduated with honor, and at once entered the army. For the last fifteen years he has been engaged in active service, except during the period when his wounds disabled him. He fought gallantly through the whole war of the rebellion, and though but a captain at the time, commanded a regiment in many of the severest battles. Few survived so many and such serious wounds, but his temperate habits gave unusual vigor to his constitution.

All who knew the Colonel were his friends and admirers. To the most determined bravery and manly bearing, he added the simplicity of a child and the modesty of a lady. In his demise the country has lost a gallant patriot and society a benevolent christian gentleman.

PUBLIC SALE.—Mrs. Susan Rhey will offer at Public Sale, at her residence on Centre street, Ebensburg, on Saturday, October 12, 1867, at 1 o'clock P. M., Chairs, Tables, Cooking Stove, Bedsteads, Bedding, Harness, Lady's Saddle, and a variety of other articles. Terms will be made known on day of sale. 2t.*

WHEN a man wants money or assistance the world is generally obliging enough to let him want, but when he wants the full worth of his money in any kind of merchandise, all he has to do is to go to the cheap store of H. A. Shoemaker & Co., on Main street, where everything from a bodkin to a bureau can be bought at the right kind of prices.

POOR HOUSE APPOINTMENTS.—We understand that the following appointments were made at the Poor House, on Monday last, by a majority of the Directors—Henry Byrne, Esq., being absent: Steward, A. D. Criste, of Munster township; Treasurer, George C. K. Zahm; Physician, Wm. Lemon, M. D.

LEG BROKEN.—We regret to learn that our friend, Mr. Jacob Nagle, a much esteemed citizen of Clearfield township, had one of his legs fractured in two places, on Sunday last, in consequence of the horse he was riding breaking through a bridge, while on his way to church.

ACCIDENT.—Sheriff Myers was thrown out of his buggy, on Tuesday evening, in consequence of one of the wheels striking a large stone, and sustained several severe contusions about the head and body. His injuries are painful, but comparatively slight.

LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.

JOHNSTOWN, SEPT. 30, 1867.

Dear Freeman—It is my painful duty to chronicle this week the sudden and terrible death of Michael Boland, a citizen of Millville, which occurred at Blairsville Intersection on Wednesday evening last. Mr. Boland had gone to Pittsburgh on the preceding Monday, and was returning home on the Philadelphia Express the evening above stated, and when in the vicinity of the Intersection he left his seat to pass into the adjoining car, and it is supposed that in crossing between the cars he missed his footing, and falling beneath the wheels, was crushed in such a manner as to cause his death within an hour after the accident occurred. His body was brought to this place on Thursday and interred in the Catholic cemetery on the following day. Mr. B. was about 38 years of age—a kind, genial, good hearted man—and was universally esteemed. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his untimely fate.

Patrick M'Donald, whom I noticed not long since as having been blown up in the mines, died from his injuries on Monday last. This poor fellow had been at work here but a few days when the accident occurred, and being friendless and without means, was taken charge of by the overseers of the poor. I believe all that medical skill could accomplish was done in his case, but owing to the severe nature of his injuries, it was impossible to prolong his life. Far from the green shores of his native land, he fell a victim to the hazardous business in which he was employed, and friendless and homeless, with no loved one near to soothe his dying moments, he departed to solve the great mystery of man's redemption.

Another lively foot race came off on Portage street, on Saturday, between Blacklock and Redmond, (both of whom have figured in like contests heretofore,) for a purse of $50. Over two thousand people posted themselves along the route, and as there was no delay on this occasion, everybody appeared perfectly satisfied except those who "went it blind" on our friend Blacklock. It was nip and tuck with the contestants for about one half the distance, when the superior "bottom" of Redmond displayed itself, and he took the lead, winning the race by about forty yards. Another race on the same evening between Parfitt and Ream, for a stake of $10, was easily won by the former.

Two young men, twin brothers, hailing from Norristown, were arrested last week for assaulting a man named Snyder, an employee at the Company's coke yard, near this place. It appears they got on a cargo of "tangle-foot," and going to Snyder's place of business, they from some cause pitched into S. and gave him a severe beating. Not appreciating such striking manifestations of regard, Snyder made information against them for assault and battery, and in default of bail they will be taken up to your place to-morrow.

Another cap thief entered a store on Clinton street, on Saturday, and purchasing a cap, started out. He returned shortly afterwards and wanted to get his money back in exchange for the cap, but as this was not the usual mode of doing business at that establishment, the clerk declined the proposition. He agreed to compromise, however, by giving another cap in return for the one purchased, but just then his presence was required in another part of the store, and as soon as his back was turned the young man, doubtless wishing to make himself whole, abstracted another cap from the box and started off, but was soon overhauled and the stolen property taken from him.

The till of a store on Main street was also robbed, one day last week, of $25. An adroit till tapper was no doubt the perpetrator of this bold robbery, for although several persons were in the store at the time, no clue to the thief could be found.

J. F. Condon, Esq., last week resigned the position of County Superintendent, with the intention of removing to Philadelphia for the purpose of accepting a situation tendered him by an Insurance Company in that city. Mr. Thomas J. Chapman, the associate of Mr. Condon in the publication of the Teachers' Advocate, is an applicant for the vacant Superintendency, and will likely succeed in securing it.

Mr. Hugh Bradley, who with his family removed from this place to Bethlehem, Pa., about a year ago, came unexpectedly among us for a brief stay, on Saturday night last. Mr. B. has still a strong yearning for the rugged hills of Cambria, and designs purchasing a farm, if he can suit himself, within its limits, and devoting his energies to the peaceful pursuit of tilling the earth. A host of warm personal friends and well-wishers will greet the return to this county of Mr. B. and family with genuine emotions of delight.

Messrs. Fronheiser and Kress are building a very extensive brewery on the old Portage Railroad, opposite Woodvale.

Another Radical blow out came off on the Public Square, on Saturday evening. The meeting was addressed by J. T. Owens of Philadelphia, Muller of Pittsburgh, and W. R. Jones of this place. SKU BAL.

ALTOONA, Oct. 1, 1867.

Friend Mac—As an occasional chronicler for your journal of occurrences transpiring in this vicinity, it is my painful duty to announce the death of a most amiable young lady, Miss Sarah Stewart, which occurred in this place on Tuesday last, after a short but painful illness, in the 26th year of her age. When the angel of death appeared with the dread summons it did not find her unprepared. It was hard to die—to be torn so young from scenes fraught with many happy and endearing memories—to bid a final adieu to mother, sisters and friends—but the good Being demanded the sacrifice, and she bowed submissively to the stroke. Blessed with an amiable disposition and a loveable nature, in which there was neither coldness nor reserve, utterly free from selfishness, jealous only of the affections of those to whom she was particularly attached, and remarkably cheerful in her manners, she gained the respect and esteem of all her acquaintances, and won from her friends the most ardent and devoted affection. Her mortal remains, as they lay exposed in a rich and beautiful coffin, were viewed by a large number of visitors, and as each one passed slowly by and looked upon the cold, prostrate form, the silent tear which fell from many an eye told more plainly than words could express how dear a place she held in the affections of all who knew her. Thus has passed from earth to heaven a pure spirit.

Oh! why should we mourn for her who has gone?
To a brighter and happier world she has flown;
She is free from all sorrow, her soul is at rest
In the realms above, with God's chosen and blest.

Requiescat in pace.

One of the most shocking accidents it has ever been my misfortune to witness occurred in this place at noon on Saturday last. A very promising lad of 14 or 15 summers, son of Mr. Washington Foutz, a blacksmith in the employ of the Pa. R. R. Co., was on his way to the shop with his father's dinner, and stopped for a few minutes on what is known as the scale track, and while his attention was attracted by the [illegible] trains moving West, he was struck by the front car of a train which moved up behind him, and falling under the wheels, three of the cars passed over him, mashing his head and breast and severing his arms from his body. Of course he was killed instantly. His remains were followed to the grave on Sunday by a large concourse of people. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of the entire community.

A somewhat exciting incident occurred here, one day last week, on the mail train, which arrives at 7.30 P. M. This train, as you are aware, stops here twenty minutes for supper, and one of the gentlemen who alighted from the cars for the purpose of dining, at the time stated, returned to find his seat occupied by a portly "American of African 'scent." The white gentleman very politely informed his colored brother that he would oblige him by vacating his seat, but the "culled gemman" replied that he couldn't see it in that light, and peremptorily refused to get up. The white gent, finding that moral suasion was of no use, concluded to try what virtue there was in knock-down argument, but had scarcely given the negro a taste of his pugilistic powers before he was arrested and taken to the lock-up, where he was forced to spend the balance of the night. I would remark here, for the information of all interested, that no one, not even the conductor, has a right to dictate to a negro where he shall sit in the cars, provided he has paid his fare. He has the lawful right to go into any car or any seat he pleases, and can even force himself into the sleeping couch of a white man, as is said to have been done on this very road not long since. He is literally and practically freer than any white man that travels A Radical Legislature has passed, and a weak and imbecile Governor has approved, a special act whereby a negro is not only made the equal (so far as the law is concerned) of the white man, but infinitely his superior in privileges.

Did you notice in the last Tribune but one the doleful wail over the defeat of Col. Hall for renomination for State Senator? It almost brings tears to the eyes to peruse it, and reminds me very forcibly of the lamentations of poor old Job over his sins.

Some of our energetic citizens have in contemplation the erection of a large building for a High School.

This is the last scribbling I will do for you until Sharswood is elected Judge of the Supreme Court, and I hope Jim Cramer Sheriff of this county. Yours, &c., T. I. M.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Sept. 28, 1867.

Dear Freeman—I had the pleasure of attending a pic-nic given by the ladies of this place to-day, and I deem it my duty to thank them for the invitation extended to me, as I was a stranger in this vicinity. I must say that it was a grand affair, and was got up in style. The principal promoters were Mrs. Geo. M'Gough, Mrs. Col. W. A. M'Dermitt, Mrs. Kate Burgoon, Miss Ellie M'Guire, Misses Sue and Maggie Glass, and several others whose names I cannot recollect. They had a splendid dinner and supper, seasoned with wine and lemonade, and all appeared to enjoy themselves, especially on the dancing floor. Mr. John A. McIntyre opened the ball by dancing several Irish jigs, which he can do in style. Next came the "prince of landlords," George M'Gough, who more than enjoyed himself, but business matters called him away at two o'clock, which did not please him, as I judged by the look of his "phyzog" when he left the grounds. When I seek for fun and a good time again, I will be sure to visit St. Augustine. That the shadows of her inhabitants may never grow less, is the sincere wish of a STRANGER.

LIVE STOCK INSURANCE.—This branch of insurance is something entirely new. The Hartford Company insures horses, cattle, etc., against death from any cause. It will be of great advantage to the teamster, or small farmer, who has a large portion of his capital invested in his team, from which he derives his livelihood. The death of a horse, in such a case, will often place the owner in comparative poverty, whereas, by the payment of a few dollars, he can now be secured against such calamity. The rich man can also provide against the loss of valuable stock in the same way. The Company has had application for Agencies from all points of the Union, and starts with every prospect of success.—Hartford Courant.

I saw him on the street one day,
With a most dejected look;
In a broken voice he told me
That his girl had him forsook.

This eve again I met him,
In smiles his tale he told:
His suit the girl could not deny.
When he went to her arrayed in a superb outfit purchased from—Leopold.

Don't forget the place—on Main street, a few doors below the Scott House, Johnstown, where a large assortment of fall and winter clothing, etc., is now in store. S. B.

GOOD NEWS.—It affords us great satisfaction to be able to state that Jas. J. Murphy, of the famous Star Clothing Hall, Johnstown, has now on his shelves the largest stock of fall and winter goods ever brought into this county. Jim is a clever man to deal with, and as the most fastidious taste can be suited from his immense stock, all in want of clothing should visit his establishment. A large selection of Overcoats at the most reasonable prices. Remember Star Hall Clothing Store, Clinton Street, Johnstown.

'TIS SAID that "absence conquers love;" 'tis said the turtle is a dove; 'tis said "a life on the ocean wave" is apt to make a lubber cave; 'tis said that "lips with whiskey wet will soon be dry again," you bet; 'tis said that "might is right in many a case," and—and—and—'tis said that when you want either dry goods, groceries, clothing or notions, Mills & Davis' is the place. Go and see.

SHAKSPEARE says that "use strengthens habit," but Squibbs alleges that he tried the experiment for a twelvemonth on a coat, and instead of use strengthening his "habit" it weakened it so completely that he was forced to buy a new one at the cheap cash store of V. S. Barker, on Main street, where a fine assortment of "habits" is always kept in profusion and sold at the lowest prices.

IT has been discovered that the first wearing apparel mother Eve ever donned was a bear skin. If the old lady lived in this age and this latitude, she would find more comfortable and fashionable goods with which to bedeck her queenly form at the great mercantile mart of J. M. Thompson, on High street. At least the daughters of Eve hereabout are of that opinion.

GOLD.—The Copper river country, in Russia America, is said to be rich in gold, and the great watch, jewelry and notion depot of C. T. Roberts, on Main street, is known to be the headquarters for the sale of all useful and ornamental articles made from this valuable commodity. If you can't go to Russia America, at least go to Roberts' and examine his stock.

ERRORS OF YOUTH.

A gentleman who suffered for years from Nervous Debility, Premature Decay, and all the effects of youthful indiscretion, will, for the sake of suffering humanity, send free to all who need it, the recipe and directions for making the simple remedy by which he was cured. Sufferers wishing to profit by the advertiser's experience, can do so by addressing, in perfect confidence, JOHN B. OGDEN, 42 Cedar street N. Y.

WHAT EVERY ONE WANTS.—A good, reliable medicine that will be on hand when required, and never fails when called on, That is now to be obtained in Dr. Tobias' Celebrated Venitian Liniment. Many thousands call it the Wonder of the Age, as it does all that is represented and more. It cures Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Colic, Spasms, Vomiting, Croup, and Sea-sickness as surely as it is used, and is perfectly innocent to take internally, even in double the quantity named in the directions; and as an external remedy for Chronic Rheumatism, Cuts, Bruises, Old Sores, Mumps, Toothache, Headache, Sore Throat, Sprains, Insect Stings, Pains in the Back, Chest, and Limbs, thousands have testified to, and their certificates can been seen by any one at the Doctor's Depot, 56 Cortlandt street, New York. Hundreds of Physicians use it in their practice. It has been introduced since 1847, and hundreds who now have it in their houses, say they would not be without it even if it was $10 per bottle. Every drop is mixed by Dr. Tobias himself, and can be depended on. Only 50 cents and $1 per bottle. Sold by Druggists. Depot 56 Cortlandt St., New York. [Oct. 3-1m.

GOING VERY FAST.—This is an age of wonderful inventions. The minds of ingenious men have brought forth machinery facilitating and making labor easy. And among the rest the Blacksmith has not been forgotten, for I. C. Singer has invented a machine which makes the process of bending light or heavy tires, bands, &c., an easy and very pleasant task. This machine is gauged and numbered so as to tell exactly where to place the rollers in order to bend any desired diameter. Hundreds of references can be given. To get the machine, address R. H. Singer, Ebensburg, Pa.

N. B.—A few State rights remain to be disposed of. None need apply for Pennsylvania, as the inventor intends holding it for the purpose of selling machines.

P. S.—The place to get your horse well shod, your wagon tire made and general blacksmithing done, is at R. H. Singer's shop, near Isaac Evans' tannery.

DR. J. H. JORDAN, Indianapolis, Indiana, says: "I have known Dr. Strickland's Pile Remedy to be thoroughly tested in numerous cases during the past year, and with perfect success in every instance. And so it is with his Remedy for Diarrhœa or Cholera, and his Cough Balsam. They are all genuine and pure."

PAMPHLET LAWS.—The Pamphlet Laws for the session of 1867 have been received, and are now ready for delivery to those persons entitled to receive them.

THE RICHEST MAN IN THE WORLD.—Extract of a Letter from Baron Solomon Rothschild.—PARIS, 8th April, 1864. Rue Fauby, St. Honore.—Will you be kind enough to have forwarded to me here 200 bottles of your Indian Liniment; if you will send at the same time the account, I will forward you the amount through Messrs. Belmont & Co., New York.

Baron Solomon Rothschild having recommended to many of his friends Major LANE'S LINIMENT, and they being desirous to procure it, he should advise him to establish a depot in Paris.

THE INDIAN LINIMENT,
As a relief, ever ready; as a killer of pain, taken inwardly, or outwardly applied, has no equal. For the relief and cure of Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, Sprains, Bruises, &c, it is unequalled. It is also most efficacious, taken inwardly, in the cure of Cholera, Cramps and Pains in the Stomach, Diarrhœa, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, &c, and is without exception the most wonderful Panacea the world affords. No FAMILY should be without it. Every TRAVELER by land or sea should have a bottle. MINERS and FARMERS residing at a distance from physicians should keep it constantly on hand. In case of Accidents and sudden attacks of Stomach Complaints, its value cannot be estimated. Inquire for Major LANE'S INDIAN LINIMENT, and take no other. PRICE 50 Cts. per bottle. For sale at wholesale and retail by Demas Barnes & Co., 21 Park Row, N. Y.; Gale & Robinson, 186 Greenwich-st., N. Y.; F. C. Wells & Co., 192 Fulton-st., N. Y.; Chas. N. Crittenden, 38 6th Ave., N. Y., and by respectable Druggists throughout the world. None genuine unless signed by JOHN THOS. LANE, and countersigned by J. T. LANE & CO., Proprietors, 163 Broadway, N. Y. ☞Send for circular.

ANOTHER NEW WRINKLE!

BOOTS AND SHOES
FOR ALL AGES AND BOTH SEXES.

In addition to his large stock of the best Eastern made
SHOES, BUSKINS, GAITERS, &c.,
For Ladies' and Children's Wear, the subscriber has just added to his assortment a full and complete invoice of Boots and Shoes for Men and Youths, which he will not only warrant to be superior to any goods of like character now being offered in this market, but vastly better in every respect than the slop-shop work with which the country is flooded. Remember that I offer no article for sale which I do not guarantee to be regular custom made, of the best material and superior finish, and while I do not pretend to compete in prices with the dealers in auction goods, I know that I can furnish BOOTS, SHOES, &c., that will give more service for less money than any other dealer in this community, and I pledge myself to repair, free of charge, any article that may give way after a reasonable time and reasonable usage. Everybody is respectfully invited to call and examine my stock and learn my prices.

The subscriber is also prepared to manufacture to order any and all work in his line of the very best material and workmanship and at prices as reasonable as like work can be obtained anywhere. French Calf, Common Calf, Morocco and all other kinds of Leather constantly on hand.

☞ Store on Main street, next door to Crawford's Hotel.

ORPHANS' COURT SALE.—By virtue of an order of the Orphans' Court of Cambria county, to me directed there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Proudfoot School House, in Chest township, on Tuesday the 8th day of October next, at 1 o'clock P. M., the following described real estate, of which Michael Yahner, late of Chest township, died seized:

A piece or parcel of LAND situated in Chest township, Cambria county, adjoining lands of Jacob Steiger, Martin Yahner, Sr., Martin Yahner, Jr., Jacob Deithrich, and others, containing 77 ACRES, 108 PERCHES, and the usual allowance for roads, etc., about twenty-five acres of which are cleared, having thereon erected a LOG HOUSE and LOG BARN. There is good pine timber on the land.

Terms of Sale.—One-third of the purchase money to be paid on confirmation of sale, and the residue in two equal annual payments, with interest, to be secured by the mortgage and judgment bonds of the purchaser. PAUL YAHNER, sept.19.3t. Adm'r Mich'l Yahner, dec'd.

Things to be Remembered, when You go to Vote.

When you go to vote, remember that the Union is not restored.

When you go to vote, remember that all the blood shed and all the treasure expended in the war have failed to purchase peace.

When you go to vote, remember that the Union might have been restored and that peace might now prevail, but for the opposition of the leaders of the Republican party.

When you go to vote, remember that the Constitution is being continually violated and constantly sneered at.

When you go to vote, remember that Thad. Stevens openly declares that Congress is acting "outside of the Constitution."

When you go to vote, remember that negro republics have been set up on the ruins of eleven of the States of the Union.

When you go to vote, remember that white men have been repeatedly deposed by military satraps to make room for negro officials.

When you go to vote, remember that a negro has already been made a Judge in New Orleans.

When you go to vote, remember that negroes fill the jury boxes in the South.

When you go to vote, remember that negro Congressmen and negro Senators from the South are shortly expected to legislate for Pennsylvania.

When you go to vote, remember that the wasted and oppressed South, once the richest section of our country, is kept impoverished by the policy of Congress.

When you go to vote, remember that your taxes are thereby vastly increased.

When you go to vote, remember that while you are thus ground to the earth by oppressive taxation that the holders of U. S. Bonds do not pay one penny.

When you go to vote, remember that the leaders of the Republican party declare that the government of Pennsylvania is not Republican in form.

When you go to vote, remember that Senator Sumner openly boasts that the negro will be made your equal by an act to be passed at the next session of Congress.

When you go to vote, remember that the Republican papers of this State openly endorse that proposition.

When you go to vote, remember that a Republican triumph in Pennsylvania will be regarded as a popular endorsement of Sumner's plan.

When you go to vote, remember that Henry W. Williams is pledged to enforce such an enactment.

When you go to vote, remember that the Republican party of this State openly and shamelessly repudiated a solemn contract to pay the interest of the State debt in coin.

When you go to vote, remember that Judge Sharswood has decided that a contract to pay a debt "in coin" is binding and should be enforced.

When you go to vote, remember that Judge Williams has endorsed the repudiation of the contract to pay the State debt in coin, and also the repudiation of the Allegheny County Bonds.

When you go to vote, remember that Congress is corrupt beyond all precedent, and that many millions of the money wrung from your toil is being stolen by that body and their minions.

When you go to vote, remember that the Legislature of this State has been little better than a den of thieves under Radical rule.

When you go to vote, remember that it is folly to expect economy and reform until there is a complete change of administration.

When you go to vote, remember that every vote cast for the Radical candidates is a direct vote for a continuance of all the abuses under which the nation is so sorely oppressed.

Be sure and vote, and be sure that you keep the condition of the country in view when you deposit your ballot.

Vote for a change!

Vote for reform!

Vote for lower taxes!

Vote against negro equality!

Vote for economy in Congress and the State Legislature!

Vote against committing this nation to the combined rule of the Puritan and the negro!

Vote early!

Vote the Democratic ticket!

See that your neighbor votes, and that he votes right!

Let there be one grand rally of the thoughtful voters, and the rule of the Radical revolutionists will be ended in Pennsylvania.—Lancaster Intelligencer.

PRANKS OF A SUB-SATRAP.—The Philadelphia Ledger says:

"A case has come up from Gen. Ord's command for revision, being the proceedings of a court-martial recently held in Mississippi. The facts, as proved, are that the lieutenant commanding in a town in Mississippi sent a disreputable woman to a hotel in the place to board. The hotel proprietor refused to give her a room. The officer remonstrated and threatened, and failing to induce the hotel keeper to yield, sent for a detachment of soldiers and took possession of the hotel, and placed the woman in a room. The facts were reported to General Ord, and a court-martial was ordered. The court found the officer guilty as charged, and sentenced him to dismissal from the service. General Grant approves of the sentence. Judge Holt recommended an abatement of the sentence, and that the offender be suspended one month, on the ground that the principal witness was once in the Confederate service. The President to-day approved of the sentence of dismissal."

And I further give notice, as in and by the 13th Section of the aforesaid Act I am directed to, That all persons excepting Justices of the Peace, who shall hold any office or appointment of profit or trust under the government of the United States or of this State, or any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, a subordinate or agent, who is or shall be employed under the legislative, judiciary or executive department of this State or the United States, or any city or incorporated district; also, that every member of Congress and the State Legislature, and of the select and common councils of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising, at the same time, the office or appointment of Judge, Inspector or Clerk of any election of this Commonwealth, and that no Inspector or Judge, or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office then to be voted for. Also, in the 4th Section of the Act of Assembly, entitled "An Act relating to elections and for other purposes," approved the 10th day of April, 1856, it is enacted that the foregoing 13th Section shall not be so construed as to prevent any military officer or borough officer from serving as Judge or Inspector at any general or special elections in the Commonwealth.

Also, that in the 61st Section of said Act it is enacted that "every general and special election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten o'clock in the forenoon, and shall continue, without interruption or adjournment, until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed."

The general, special, city, incorporated district and township elections, and all elections for electors of President and Vice President of the United States, shall be held and conducted by the Inspectors and Judges elected as aforesaid, and by clerks appointed as hereinafter provided.

No person shall be permitted to vote at any election, as aforesaid, but a white freeman of the age of twenty-one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or County tax which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election. But a citizen of the United States, who had previously been a citizen of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district, and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months. Provided, that the white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two years, and who have resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes.

No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants furnished by the Commissioners, unless first he produce a receipt for the payment of a State or County tax assessed agreeably to the Constitution, and give satisfactory evidence, either on his own oath or affirmation or that of another, that he has paid such tax, or on failure to produce a receipt, shall make oath thereof; or, second, if he claim the right to vote by being an elector between the age of twenty-one and twenty-two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of his residence in the district as is required by this Act, and that he does verily believe, from the account given him, that he is of the age aforesaid, and give such other evidence as is required by this Act, whereupo nthe name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the Inspector, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "Tax," if he shall be permitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word "Age," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age, and the same shall be called out to the Clerks, who shall make their notes in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all such cases, where the name of a person claiming to vote is found on the list furnished by the Commissioners and Assessors, or his right to vote, whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the Inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall not be sufficient proof thereof, but shall make proof thereof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector, that he has resided in the district for more than ten days next preceding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence, in pursuance of his lawful calling, is within the district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, as is required, of his residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent, or attempt to prevent, any officer of any election under this act from holding such election, or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere within the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window, or avenue to any window, where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace of such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector, or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such persons, on conviction, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $500, be imprisoned for any time not less than one month nor more than twelve months; and if it shall be shown to the Court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then, on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars, and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years."

Pursuant to the provisions contained in the Act first aforesaid, the Judges of the aforesaid districts shall respectively take charge of the certificate or return of their respective districts, and produce them at a meeting of one Judge from each district, at the Court House in the borough of Ebensburg, on the third day after the day of election, being FRIDAY, the 11th day of October, A. D. 1867, and then and there to do and perform those duties required of them by law.

And further, if any Judge, by sickness or unavoidable accident, is unable to attend said meeting of Judges, then the certificate or return aforesaid shall be taken charge of by one of the Inspectors or Clerks of election of the same district, who shall do and perform the duties of said Judge unable to attend.

"That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby hereafter authorized and required to vote by ticket, printed or written, or partly printed and partly written, severally classified as follows: One ticket shall embrace the names of all judges of courts voted for, and to be labelled, outside, 'judiciary;' one ticket shall embrace the names of all State officers voted for, and be labelled 'State;' one ticket shall embrace all the County officers voted for, including office of Senator, member or members of Assembly, if voted for, and members of Congress, if voted for, and be labelled 'County;' one ticket shall embrace the names of all Township officers voted for, and be labelled 'Township;' one ticket shall embrace the names of all Borough officers voted for, and be labelled 'Borough;' and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot-boxes."

Given under my hand, at my office in Ebensburg, the 11th day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and of the Independence of the United States the ninetieth. JAMES MYERS, Sheriff.

MEDICAL PREPARATIONS.

POLAND'S
Magic Millions Powder

This Preparation is the discovery of Rev. J. W. P. formerly Pastor of the Church in Gaffstown, N. H.—and dearly beloved by that denomination throughout N. England. He was obliged to leave the pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his MAGIC POWDERS are the most wonderful discovery of modern times. It is the GREAT LIVER AND BILIOUS REMEDY, which completely turns in the shade all other discoveries in medicine, and it affords him much gratification that they receive the unanimous approbation of all who have tested them. The Magic Millions Powders are a POSITIVE CURE for LIVER COMPLAINT in its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS. Excellent for Headache, Constipation, Pimples, Dyspepsia, Sallow Skin, Drowsiness, Dizziness, Palpitation, Heartburn, and a most sure Cure and Preventative of Fever & Ague.
(We advise all who are troubled with the fearful malady to always keep the Powders on hand ready for immediate use.)
Here are a few important particulars. 1st. They are the great specific for all Liver Affections. 2d. They are the only known remedy for Biliousness. 3d. They are the only known remedy that will cure Liver Complaint. 4th. They are so thorough in their operation that one package will be all that the majority of those using them will require to effect a cure. 5th. They are a mild and pleasant yet the most effectual cathartic known. 6th. They are the cheapest and best medicine ever known, they can be sent by mail to any part of the globe for the price, 50 cents.
Circulars, containing certificates, information, etc., sent to any part of the world free of charge. ☞ Sold by all Druggists, or sent by mail on application to
C. G. CLARK & CO., Gen'l Agents.
Price, 50 Cts. per Box. New Haven, Conn.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE!
This great remedy for all DISEASES OF THE STOMACH is the discovery of the inventor of Coe's valuable Cough Balsam, while experimenting for his own health. It cured Cramp in the Stomach for him which had before yielded to nothing but chloform. The almost daily testimony from various parts of the country encourages us to believe there is no disease caused by a disordered stomach it will not speedily cure. Physicians endorse and use it. Ministers give testimony of its efficacy; and from all directions we receive tidings of cures performed.
Dyspepsia it is sure to cure. Heartburn, one dose will cure. Sick Headache is cured in hundreds of cases. Headache or Dizziness it stops in thirty minutes. Sickness of the Stomach it corrects at once. Nausea after Eating one dose will cure you. Offensive Morbus rapidly yields to a few doses. Offensive Breath will be changed with half a bottle.
IT IS PERFECTLY HARMLESS!
Its unprecedented success is owing to the fact that it cures by assisting Nature to assert her sway in the system.
Nearly every dealer in the United States sells it at ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.
